

Your Retreat Leader

Known for teaching leaders how to bring out the best in the people who frustrate them the most, Rebekah Simon-

Peter, creator of the award-winning group coaching program, Creating a Culture of Renewal, helps transform church leaders and the congregations they serve.

President of Rebekah Simon-Peter Coaching and Consulting Inc, Rebekah is also an accomplished author whose books call the church to a culture of renewal.

Drawing upon her life experiences in the Reform and Orthodox Jewish communities, as well as her training in environmental studies, she wrote The Jew Named Jesus, Green Church: Reduce, Reuse, Recycle, Rejoice!, and 7 Simple Steps to Green Your Church.

Whether speaking, coaching, training or writing, Rebekah's style is open and upbeat, incorporating humor, contemporary scholarship, and lived experience. She lives in Casper WY with her husband Jerry Gonzales and two furry friends.

Re-Discovering Your Value

When you're working well together, nothing can stop you! When you're not on the same page, it seems that nothing can motivate you. Frustration, stagnation, and personality conflicts prevail. Then, your mission as the Church suffers.

How can you work together more effectively for the common good?

By understanding yourself and others better, so that you can bring out the best in each other. Then, you can get back to the business of making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world!

The Common Good

Now there are varieties of gift, but the same Spirit; and there are varieties of services, but the same Lord; and there are varieties of activities, but it is the same God who activates all of them in everyone. To each is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good.

I Corinthians 12:4-7
